

MJD: energy matching balances the class spectra

390,000 saved test events; class-normalized distributions; 50 keV display bins

Original population

After energy matching

Evaluation caps energy at 3000 keV; matching restricts common support and changes weights.